DECLARATION OF FRANCE.—Count Walewski, on behalf of the French government, has issued a declaration to its diplomatic representative, setting forth its efforts to prevent hosilities, and having failed, its duty is to support Sardinia. France, since half a century, has never pretended to exercise an interested influence in italy, and it is not she, assuredly, who can be accused of having attempted to arouse the remembrance of ancient struggles and historical rivalries. All that she has hitherto asked for, and treaties agree with her wishes, is that the States of the (Itallian) eninsula should live for themselves and manage their own affairs at home, as well as in their foreign relations. I am not aware that a different view is taken at London, Berlin, or St. Petersburg than at Baris; however it may be, circumstances have placed Austria towards the various powers of

No May 18th T. H. McKOY & CO. has ruled exceedingly dull during the week just ended. No sale; that we can learn of, and we quote second hand nominal at $1 65 to $1 85 each, according to quality. Corron.-The unfavorable news from the European markets has had a depressing effect on this article, and we are > unable to give anything like a correct quotation; no buyers in market at present. CORN MEAL-Has been in fair enquiry throughout the week, and the price has gone up 15 a 20 cents; market poorly supplied. We quote at $1 15 a $1 20 % bushel, with an upward tendency in prices. FLOUR-The market during the week just ended has been in an excited state under the advices received, and, with an active enquiry from speculators, prices have advanced about 624 a 75 cents on former quotations. Up to Monday last sales were being made from store and wharf at $7 25 a $7 50 for superfine; since then one or two lots have changed hands at $7 624 $2 bbl. At the time of making up our report the market is in an unsettled condition, and we can with corn. scarcely give a correct quotation. first hands has become nearly worked off. See table for GRAIN-The CORN market has also been in an excited condition since our last review, the advices from both home and foreign markets having produced a speculative demand, and prices are fully 174 cents higher than quoted in our last. The receipts for the week comprise only 7,400 bushels from Hyde county, and sales made as follows: Friday, 3700 and Brig Judge Blaney, for Portland. Left Brig Maria loding bushels at $1; Saturday, 1990 do. at $1 03; and Monday, 1,800 do. at $1 05 @ bushel-the market closing firm at latter figure, with a brisk demand from dealers, and only a light stock in store. OATS-Remain about the same as reported for several weeks past; dealers have only a small stock in store, and we note a moderate demand. No receipts or sales .- Peas The market rules steady for Cow, and receipts meagre; -in fair demand, and sell readily at $1 05 # bushel .- BICE-For clean the market has ruled active under the advices from abroad, and the price has further advanced 4 a 4 cent; in brisk demand, and only a light stock in store. We quote small sales at 43 a 5 cents 7 tb. In the rough article we can hear of no sales, and cannot give a correct quotation; little or none of last year's crop offering on

HAY-The market is poorly supplied with all descriptions, and has ruled exceedingly firm for a few weeks past. There is an active demand from dealers, and sales are easily made. About 200 bales Northern have arrived since our last, and sold at 824 a 85 cents $2 100 fbs., cash-being an advance on previous rates. No receipts or sales of Eastern, and nominal at 95 cents a $1.

LIME. - There is merely a retail demand for this article, and we notice a moderate stock in dealers' hands. A cargo of 1700 casks was received a few days since, and changed hands on terms not made public Selling from store and wharf at $1 a $1 10 @ cask, in quantities as wanted. LUMBER-River-None received since our last, and consequently we have no sales to report. See table for quota-Molasses. The advices received from other markets since our last review have imparted a firmer feeling to this article, and prices have an upward tendency: fair stock in first hands. There has been a moderate demand throughout the week, and we quote sales from store and wharf at

POTATOES .- A few lots of new crop frish have been brought to market, and sold from carts at $2 50 to $3 $ T. Petteway.

We refer to our table for store quotations, as in quantity and quality.

SALT .- For Liverpool ground there is a moderate demand, * For virgin or mixed Turpentine a deduction and the market is very poorly stocked. A lot of 500 sacks was received coastwise on Wednesday, and sold at 77 cents & Co.; with naval stores, &c. W sack, cash. Alum is in fair supply, and dull of sale at quotations in table.

Shingles - Are in limited request, and sell slowly at $2 to $2 25 for Common, and $3 50 to $4 50 $ M. for Contract. TIMBER.—None of consequence has been received for two or three weeks past, and with fair demand from millers | Master. the market has ruled firm. We quote small sales at $7 to $8 50 P M.

FREIGHTS .- Rates coastwise are about the same as last week reported. Very little country produce arriving, and the quantity offering is barely sufficient for the vessels now in port. See table for last rates paid. We learn that a Barque was taken up on Wednesday for Philadelphia at 30 | LIVER COMPLAINT, WEAKNESS OF ANY KIND cents W bbl. for Rosin.

Meeting with great success among them, I now offer it to the American public, knowing that its truly wonderful medicinal virtues must be acknowledged.

It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have been impaired by the continuous use of ardent spirits, or other forms of dissipation. Generally, instantaneous in effect, it finds its way directly to the seat of life, thrilling and quickening every nerve, raising up the drooping spirit, and, in fact, infusing new health and vigor in the system.

NOTICE.—Whoever expects to find this a beverage will be disappointed; but to the sick, weak and low spirited, it will prove a grateful aromatic cordial, possessed of singular CAUTION: The great popularity of this delightful Aroma has induced many imitations, which the public should guard against purchasing. Be not pursuaded to buy anything else until you have given Borhave's Holland Bitters a fair trial. One bot-
